easyJet inaugurates new direct flight between Naples and Fuerteventura: second connection to Canary Island takes off

- The new route Naples – Fuerteventura operates from today, June 25, with a weekly frequency on Wednesdays
- Fuerteventura is the second destination in the Canary Islands operated by easyJet and reachable from Naples after Gran Canaria
- In 2025, there will be 51 destinations accessible from Naples with easyJet

easyJet today inaugurates the new direct connection between Naples and Fuerteventura, further enriching its range of destinations from Naples International Airport.

The new route Naples – Fuerteventura offers an ideal opportunity to discover one of the most spectacular islands in the Canary Archipelago. Thanks to the weekly connection, travelers from Naples will have the chance to easily reach one of the most sought-after islands throughout the year.

In 2025, easyJet will offer around 3.6 million seats to and from Naples to 51 destinations in 16 countries, thanks to the 8 aircraft based at the airport, confirming the strategic role of Naples as a gateway in the Mediterranean. The new destination adds to the rich portfolio of routes available from Naples, which includes connections to Mykonos, Dubrovnik, Split, Bordeaux, Alicante, and Marrakech, offering Neapolitan and Campanian passengers an increasingly wide range of travel opportunities to fascinating destinations.

“We are excited to inaugurate the new connection between Naples and Fuerteventura, a destination that further strengthens our presence in Naples, where we have been operating for 25 years and have had a base with 8 aircraft for the past 10 years. With this new route, we reaffirm our commitment to making Campania increasingly accessible and connected, continuing to expand the range of destinations from and to the city towards the most popular seaside locations,” said Lorenzo Lagorio, Country Manager of easyJet Italy.

“The launch of the new direct route between Naples and Fuerteventura marks another important step in our strategy to expand and enhance our network. Our goal is to offer passengers more choice and greater convenience while supporting tourism growth. With its unspoiled beaches, year-round mild climate, and extraordinary natural beauty, Fuerteventura is the perfect destination for Campanian citizens looking to unwind or enjoy outdoor activities,” said Margherita Chiaramonte, Commercial Director at GESAC.
